DRIVEN DESIGN

John Stepper "Working Out Loud" 2014

Working Out Loud

a catalyst for personal growth

"Organizations are implicitly optimized to avoid changing the status quo middle- and first-level manager and specialist positions & power structures."

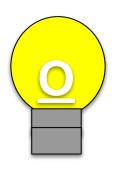

Craig Larman (Larman's Law)

a.k.a. Culture follows structure

Craig Larman (Larman's Law)

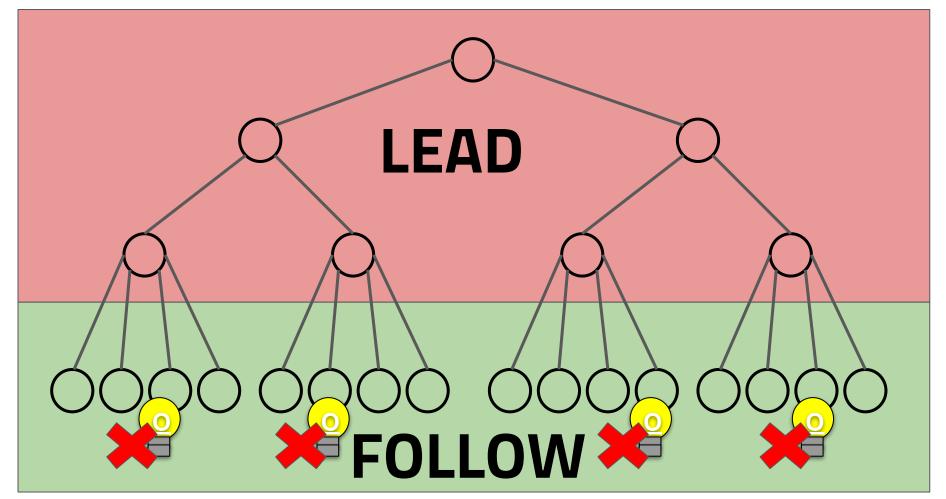

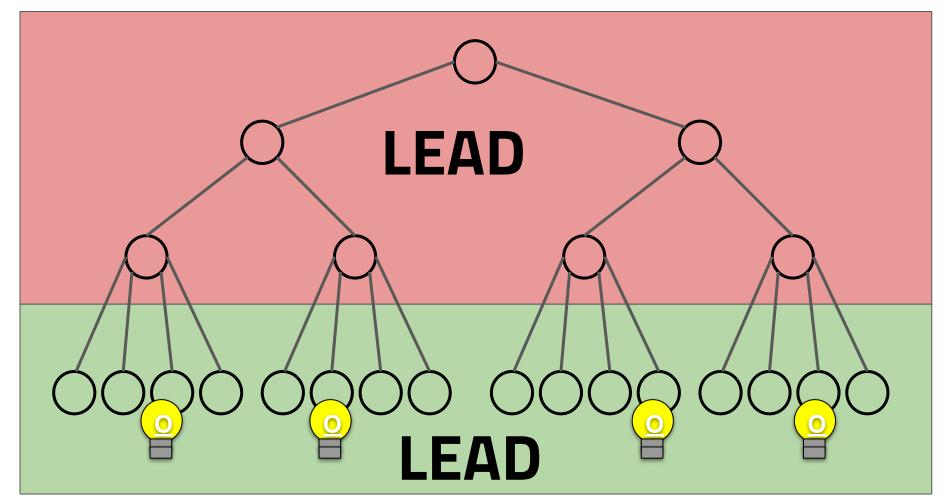

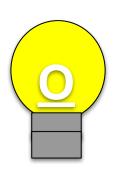

an organizational hack towards cultural change

an enabler of self-management and innovation

a space for building trust and psychological safety

Practice time!

- 1. Form groups of five with people you don't know
- 2. Write a list of 10 facts about you
- 3. Pass the list on to the person to the right
- 4. Introduce yourself in context of your neighbour's list

Making yourself and your work visible

Intimacy Levels in a relationship list

- 1. The person doesn't know you exist.
- 2. You're connected in some way. (e.g., you follow them online)
- 3. You've had one or more interactions.
- 4. You've collaborated, even in a small way.
- 5. You regularly interact, exchange ideas, and help each other.

Practice time!

- 1. Return to your groups
- 2. Imagine spending 20% of your work time on a project what would you do? Write down five ideas! Pick one!
- 3. Who could help you with that? Name five people!
- 4. Discuss!
